

IN THE UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT FOR THE DISTRICT OF NEBRASKA

LINDA NELSON,

4:14CV3010

Plaintiff,

v.

MEMORANDUM AND ORDER

DENISE SKROBECKI, warden, in her personal and professional capacity, STEVE HUNZEKER, unit administrator, in his personal and professional capacity, DAMON BRUBER, unit manager, in his personal and professional capacity,
and BROOKE BJERRUM, unit manager, in her personal and professional capacity,

Defendants.

This matter is before the court on Defendants' Motion to Amend Progression Order (Filing No. 30). The court's progression order requires all depositions to be completed by July 8, 2015. Defendants were scheduled to depose Plaintiff on July 7, 2015, but were unable to complete the deposition because Plaintiff was transported to Madison County for an emergency hearing in an unrelated case. They ask for the court to modify its progression order to extend the time in which they have to depose Plaintiff and file dispositive motions. However, they do not propose any deadlines for the amended progression order or explain how much time is needed to depose Plaintiff or when she will return from Madison County. Accordingly,

IT IS THEREFORE ORDERED that: Defendants Motion to Amend Progression Order (Filing No. 30) is denied without prejudice to reassertion of a motion that identifies proposed deadlines for completing discovery and filing dispositive motions.

DATED this 8th day of July, 2015.

BY THE COURT:

s/ John M. Gerrard

United States District Judge
